

Mrs. Gwendolyn Knox Pund

November 18, 1929 - October 29, 2014

Gwendolyn Knox Pund, wife of the late William (Bill) D. Pund, Sr. (MSgt Ret), passed away at home on Wednesday, October 29, 2014 at the age of 84.

Gwen was born in Anderson, SC to the late John A. Knox and Bertie Thomas Knox. She was raised in Seneca by her father and step-mother, Agnes M. Knox. She was a member of St. Mark United Methodist Church in Seneca.

Mrs. Pund is survived by daughters: Mary Williams (James "Willy") of Seneca, SC;

G. Ann Gray ("Johnny") of Powder Springs, GA; Connie Thompson (E. J.) of Goose Creek, SC; son: William D. Pund, Jr. of Mableton, GA; eleven grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren; sisters: JoAnn Knox and Sandra Stricker (Bob) both of Seneca.

Gwen was preceded in death by her husband "Bill".

Graveside service will be held at Richland Presbyterian Church at a later date.

The family wishes to thank the loving and dedicated staff of Hospice of the Foothills at both Cottingham House and the Hospice home care service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Oconee Hospice of the Foothills,

Attn: Foundation Office, 298 Memorial Dr., Seneca, SC 29672.

The family is at the home on 222 High Hill Rd., Seneca.

“ I was graced by being allowed to enter this family by marrying her granddaughter Tammy. I have so many memories of Gwen's (Mema's) kindness, love, and support for her family that I can't just pick one!

She may have "left" this earth on our 20th anniversary but I'll always consider that a privilege to celebrate her life with "our day" from now on.
