“Marc and Martha, I wish I could wave a magic wand and make this horrible tragedy only a bad dream but I can't. Nor can I say anything that will make you feel better. However, I do want both of you to know that my heart is breaking for you because I cannot begin to imagine the pain you must be suffering. And I want you both to know I will pray everyday that God eases your pain in some way. Please know I will keep you both in my thoughts and prayers, and if there ever comes a time I can help either of you in anyway, please know I will be there for you. Hannah was a special young lady that now is a special angel in heaven and only God knows why He chose her to come home on that day, but rest assured you will be with her again and until then she will be watching over you. With my deepest sympathy, Allyson Carter

“Martha and Marc, I was one of the caregivers who had the wonderful opportunity to come to know your precious daughter as well as her sweet parents at TLC childcare about 20 years ago. She was such a delightful little girl. I remember at the time I was with her, Baby Bop was her favorite comfort toy. If she roused awake momentarily during naptime, it was Baby Bop she looked for first. I often thought if one looked in the dictionary under quiet, sweet and demure, Hannah's name would be listed. Through the years, I'm sure changes happen, but that's the Hannah we knew. She was very loyal to those she came to know well. She has grown into a beautiful young lady whom I am sure was the light of your lives. Keep that light alive. We also kept Caleb, they were so close. I am so thankful for the opportunity to have been a small part of the early years of a young life that I am certain touched so many others in a positive way. My heart aches for your devastating loss and my prayer is that you will lean into Jesus arms and allow Him to hold you until you are able to again stand strong one day. There are no words that will make this easier. Just know that your family is bathed in prayer and know the day will come when you all can recall a fond memory of Hannah that will draw a smile rather than a tear. Caleb, hold fast to your memories of Hannah, know that she is near.

“ Hannah,

*Of all God's many blessings to me, whether great or whether small,
Having been blessed with you as my niece, sits above them all;*

*Though we had so little time together, as we were miles apart,
I held you tightly every day with love, deep inside my heart;*

*I cherish the stolen moments, when we could sit and talk a while,
And hope you know just the thought of you would always bring a smile;*

*I know you loved me, just as I loved you more than you can know,
I struggle to find a reason...it's so unfair you had to go;*

*Time cheated you out of life, and for us, many joy-filled years,
And only memories now remain, bittersweet through our tears;*

*I will think of you in silence, and often speak your name,
As your picture on the shelf beside me sits forever in its frame;*

*When tomorrow starts without you and you're not here to view,
The sun will rise and find my eyes, filled with tears for you;*

*I know you wouldn't want me to cry the way I did today
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say;*

*Memories of you are my keepsake, from which I will never part.
God holds you in his arms, I have you in my heart.*

RIP, my sweet girl. I love you. Aunt Leslie
