So sorry I could not be with the family during this time of sorrow due to sickness. I shall always remember Helen and her years at Tamassee-Salem High School. While I was teaching there and her working in the library, we became dear friends. Her wonderful surprises from her kitchen made our day. She truly was always caring about others. She will be missed, but God knows the best for each of us and she is now rejoicing in Heaven. May God surround your family with his grace and love during the days to come.

“ I have known Helen for we won't say how many years but Loved her all those years and will miss her. I am so sorry she had to suffer but so glad she is with our LORD and not in pain. I will miss her just knowing she is gone. Our love goes out to the family and friends and praying GOD will take the pain away from you and help you through this trying time.
