

Mr. Henry Harrison Harden

December 5, 1948 - April 5, 2020

Henry Harrison Harden, 71, husband of the late Joyce Crumpton Harden, of 199 Old Turnpike Road, Mountain Rest, passed away on Sunday, April 5, 2020, at his daughter's home.

A native of Oconee County, Mr. Harden was the son of the late John Louis Harden and Edna Belle Rowland Mitchell. He was owner and operator of Henry's Body Shop and Henry's Auto Salvage in Walhalla. Mr. Harden was a veteran of the U.S. Army, having served during the Vietnam War and served in the National Guard. He was a member of the American Legion and the V.F.W. Post in Seneca. Mr. Harden was a member of Rocky Knoll Baptist Church.

Always smiling, Mr. Harden was loved by many, many friends. He loved life, the gathering of friends and helping people.

Mr. Harden was a loving father of two daughters: Missy McCall (Mark) of Mountain Rest and Kristy Parham (Lane) of Walhalla; sisters: Annette Smith of Spartanburg and Loretta Smith of Walhalla; brother: Roger Harden of Boston, MA; grandchildren: Hunter Smith, Landon Chappell, Kamryn Webb, Rhett Parham, Kynlee Parham and Jacob McCall; and an extra special nephew, Chub Mitchell.

In addition to his wife and parents, Mr. Harden was preceded in death by a daughter: Marvi Diana Harden; brother: Charlie Mitchell; and a grandson: Tyler Rodriguez.

A celebration of life will be held at the home at a later date.

Memorials may be made to Shriner's Children's Hospital, 950 West Faris Road, Greenville, SC 29605.

The family is at the home of the daughter, Missy McCall, 199 Old Turnpike Road, Mountain Rest, SC 29664.

“ Bobby Lee, my brother, worked for Henry many years and Henry was so understanding when Bobby had to take time off for his cancer treatments. He told of one day after returning from his chemo he decided to go on to work. Henry met him at the office door and told him "to get back home and rest". He always said Henry was the best boss and man he had ever worked for. By the number of tributes written about Henry, I can understand the many reasons Bobby thought so. Loretta and Annette, we are thinking of you as you say goodbye to your brother. Brothers are hard to come by, easy to love, and sad to be separated until you meet him again. Take care of your nieces; they will need you more now than ever before. Our sympathy to the entire family, Louise L & Clarence Towe
