“ I am sorry I didn't get to know Mr. Horace well. What I do know was he loved his family and enjoyed having conversations about his travels. May God bless you all and I know he's happy in his Heavenly home now.

“ David and I are so sorry to lose one of the best neighbors we've had. Mr. Horace was a talker. It was always hard to leave the Hare home. He and Mrs. Eulala were free givers. They' call come and get some of whatever they had in their garden. One Saturday afternoon, he walked me through the Unity Baptist Cemetery and told me about all the lives resting there that he knew about. May he rest there at his earthly home and in his new home as well. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Mrs. Eulala, Gladys, Roger and Bobby.
