“ Your dad/grandpa/brother was very special to us. It never failed every time we had the privilege of talking to him that he made us feel like one of his own. He had that unique God-given gift. He loved his family, friends and people in general. But most of all he loved his Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

A memory: One evening Sue and I were taking an evening walk on Falcon's Lair and decided to cut across to visit with Howard and Ethel. They were so pleased that we had come to visit them. They made us feel so welcome and did not want us to leave. Ethel and Howard would always tell us how much they missed us at North Walhalla. And we missed them.

Howard may not be with us here on this earth, but he is in our hearts. Know that your family is in our thoughts and prayers.

God Bless###imported-begin##Roger & Sue LeCroy##imported-end##

“ Dear Family,

We just wanted to let you know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers. While we only met Mr. Loudermilk a couple of times the stories shared with us by his grandson and the obvious love and affection shown by his grandson and great grandchildren are a testament to the wonderful life that he lived.##imported-begin##Cory & Kristel Causby##imported-end##
