“ To the children and family of Howard Whitworth,
So sad to read of Whit's passing. We will miss him as our neighbor. So sad for all of you to have lost both your father and mother so close together. Whit loved all his children and was proud of each of you. You have all been so loyal and honorable to your father.
I know your hearts are satisfied that your father was ready to meet God and go on to his eternal home in heaven. God bless each of you and remember we are praying for your family.

“ To Mr. Howard's family: we will say that you were all so blessed to have a wonderful gentleman as your dad. He was so nice, polite and smiling every time that I saw him. May the Lord give you peace and comfort at this time and in the days to come as only He can. Be blessed.

“ Enjoyed knowing Mr. Whit from long ago when he married the cousin of my dad and then later being reacquainted with him and Mildred at Pleasant Ridge. He had wonderful stories to share of his activities in the military and of the many places his family traveled to be with him. He is now resting with the love of his life, both peacefully now in Heaven.

We continue to pray for the family of this loving Christian man as they are still mourning the passing of their Mother only a couple of months ago and now the grieving that comes with the passing of their Dad.

With love,
