“ I knew Pat through the time his Mother lived at Mariner in Seneca, and my Mom was there at the same time. He was always so nice to all the clients especially the little old ladies, patting them on their shoulders and especially telling them how pretty they looked on the days the hair dresser had been there. He was one who helped with the cookouts and other activities for the clients even after his Mother passed away. I'll always remember his inspiring attitude toward those of us who seemed to just be watching our loved one waste away knowing we had done all we could for them. I did not know he had become ill and was very sad when I saw his obit in the paper. God Bless You.##imported-begin##Louise Towe##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. You don't know me nor did Mr. Covington, but, he touched my heart just the same. My dad lived across the way for Mr. Covington at Seniors Way in Seneca. My dad told me that they were buddies. My dad was a loner and also died at Hospice House. I know your pain and sense of loss. I'm truly sorry and pray for your healing after Mr. Covington's death. I just want you to know if my dad called him a buddy, I know he was a good man. Thank you for listening and may God be near you at this time.##imported-begin##Terry L. Brown##imported-end##

“ John and Jeff, I am so sorry to hear about your Dad, my Uncle Pat. I know first hand how hard it is to lose a parent and all that goes with it. I am not sure if you guys were there at the end as I was, but the peace that there is at the end is very comforting in a lot of ways. WE all know that there is no more suffering by anyone and that memories do not go away. My team is playing in Central at Daniel HS and I was hoping that I might have the opportunity to at least go by the funeral home to sign the register or possible speak with one of you. I am not sure that I can do that now with it not being in Seneca. Please be strong for yourselves and most importantly your children. Please know that you all in my thoughts and prayers and I will be coaching as hard as I can tonight with a heavy heart. God Bless!

“ Your family has my deepest sympathy. Having just experienced the loss of my father, I understand the depth of your sorrow. My dad was only at the Cottingham House for a few days before he passed away, but during this time I saw that Mr. Covington was a very lucky man to have such a devoted family.

May God bless and comfort you during this time, and may you always cherish the memories you made with your dad. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Patricia Hall##imported-end##
