“ I've been with Ida for both life and death - the death of her sister, Kenny, and the birth of her son Jesse. It's hard to think of continuing on in the absence of the most honorable person I ever met.

“ A beautiful, generous soul, smart and sassy . I will never forget the amazing dinner she treated us to (a huge table of friends) for Treys birthday a few years back. It was a wonderful time.

So sorry to hear of Ida's passing. I pray God will wrap her in his loving arms with the indescribable love that's so strong, even the wind stops when in his presence. May she be accepted into his holy kingdom, and may the heavens rejoice at her return home.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Ida's passing. We worked together in the Chemistry area many years. She was one of the hardest working, spunkiest, smartest people I have ever known, and I enjoyed working with her and will truly miss her. Her love for her family was so evident when she talked about you all. Mud," Nick, Jesse, and your family, I pray God will grant you the strength needed to get through this hard time in your lives. You have my most sincere condolences.
