“ Some of my life's happiest memories are the time my Dad and Mother, Swede and Blanche Sandstrom, and I spent with Bob, Irene and Robbie in St. Charles, MO. We were all great friends and spent a lot of time together. My Mother and irene were going somewhere all the time to shop and just have fun. We would most always end the day over a cup of coffee in Irene's kitchen. Those were the good old days, I will never forget what this family has meant to me and my family. Will be happy to see them all again in Heaven. I love you all.

“ Miss Irene was a true lady. I have known her since 1958, and I became very close to her, and her family. I have many memories of the time we spent together. I, and my family, will truly miss her. We are praying for her, and that God will help her family at this time of their loss.
