“ It took me 3 years to find the words that I still don't pretend to have. I never had a papa, until you. You taught me so much, the easy way and the hard way. But it was definitely a lesson for the better once I understood. I never will forget the day I was eating at the kitchen table and you was swatting flies and smacked that fly swat down and killed a fly on my plate. I was shocked, I looked at you and you smiled and giggled like it was soo funny. I failed to see the humor at the time but now, it's the first thing that I think of and smile. When I said you was the last of a dying breed, I meant it then and I mean it now. We did not always see eye to eye but the love I have for you has never wavered. I wish I could have been there and closer thru the years and changes but I wasn't, I thought it was better that way. But I never for a second stopped loving you and thinking of you as my pop. Thank you for the lessons and the acceptance and the love. May you forever rest peacefully and smile down on us all. You will never be forgotten and I am so thankful xoxo

“ Papa I will never forget all the times of you teaching me how to grow crops. Us cutting down trees to keep grandma warm. And all the times me, Jason, Chris, and Josh put many baseballs through the back window and we would all run knowing we were all in trouble. Papa I miss you so much I love you. Even though you were my papa you was also my daddy caus u were the one who rised me. I'm sorry I don't turn out the way u wanted me to but papa I'll never give up and u will always be in my heart. Love always Toot Toot( Andrew)
