“ Words cannot express the pain the hurt the emptyness you all are feeling during this tragic time. Nothing I say will come close to comfort that you each are seeking for right now. I pray God helps guid you and help understand why it was his time and his way of going....I pray each of you find peace and comfort to pull threw for each other and for the sblings. I was raised to never ask why but its so hard in such situations to not ask when all you are seeking is who how and why now why this horrific way!!!! I cant imagine May you all find comfort peace and guidance during this time of tragedy!!!!

“ So sorry for your loss. God let you keep his child for a little while but when he was ready for him he called him back home. Lord I pray that you help them through the hardest times and we thank you for the time we had with him. We loved him and it's so hard but he is with you now, please watch over his mom, dad and family. Thank you in your holy name, Amen.

“ I did not know this precious child, but our Heavenly FATHER knew him here on earth & now, little Jacob is resting in the arms of our LORD JESUS CHRIST. I pray for you mom and dad as I know you must be hurting so much right now. But, know this; if you have JESUS in your heart, you can see & hold Jacob once more. Please let GOD heal your family's hurts & hearts. With love and many prayers.

“ Dear Jennifer and Roger, my thoughts and prayers are with you during this very difficult time as you grieve the loss of your sweet Jacob. You are on our prayer list at St. John's Lutheran, and we are holding you close to our hearts and will continue to lift you up in prayer. We were blessed to have Jacob with at our preschool this fall along with his brother Lane. Praying for God's strength and love to help you along this difficult journey.
