

Mrs. Jacqueline Wagoner Aldrich

May 23, 1927 - September 14, 2012

Jacqueline Wagoner Aldrich of 150 Downs Boulevard, Clemson, SC, passed away peacefully on Friday, September 14, 2012 at Oconee Medical Center after a brief illness. She was 85 years of age.

She is survived by son, Larry Stanley Bowman (Mary) of Seneca, SC, and step-sons, Robert M. Aldrich (Karen) of Germantown, Maryland, and Wayne R. Aldrich (Cindy) of Mt. Airy, Maryland as well as her dear sister, Mrs. George (Edna) Miller of Martinsburg, West Virginia. Jackie was loving grandmother to five grandchildren and proud great grandmother to four great grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her first husband, Robert Stanley Bowman, her husband, Robert Burnis Aldrich, and step-daughter, Kathleen R. Aldrich.

Jackie, as she was known to her friends, and Robert moved to Clemson from Mt. Airy, Maryland in 1999 where they enjoyed retirement. Jackie loved travel, dancing, studying the Bible, both Baltimore Orioles and Clemson baseball games, animals, and most of all being around other people. She was never so happy as when she was helping someone. She was loved by her friends and family and will be sorely missed.

A memorial service will be held in the large room at the Corley Center, Clemson Downs on Sunday, September 30th at two o'clock in the afternoon.

A family graveside service will be held Saturday, October 13, 2012 at 11:00 AM at Meadowridge Memorial Park, 7250 Washington Blvd., Elkridge, Maryland.

The family would like to thank the dedicated staff of the Critical Care Unit at Oconee Medical Center for their tireless and skillful care as well as Dr. Conrad Shuler and associates at Seneca Medical Associates, Dr. Rick Ricalde of Lake Ridge Neurological, and Dr. Jim McGeorge of Blue Ridge Orthopedics.

Memorials maybe made to the Oconee Medical Center Foundation, 298 Memorial Drive, Seneca, SC 29672, or the Clemson Downs Volunteers, 500 Downs Loop, Clemson, SC 29631.
