“ My Daddy was a good man, a simple man, not a man of many words, but meant every word he said. He was a dying breed, a devoted husband to one wife for 69 yrs .He could take a piece of wood and with a saw, a hammer and a few nails create a masterpiece. He could plant a seed ,nurture it and then watch it grow into something to feed his family.I will always remember him riding his old blue Ford tractor, happy just to be able to climb up in the seat and ride. I will remember his stories of 91 years of living, stories of both hard times and good times.Most of all I remember how he touched my life and taught me so many things. Every spring when I see the peach trees blooming , I will think of him and I will miss him. I love you Daddy....

“ To The Family of "Papa Collins", I think that this is the hardest tribute that,I've ever tried to write about a res. from Lila, it's just not the same, without "Papa". I went in this morning & looked for him,as I went down the hall & then it hit me,that he wasn't with us anymore ,that he had gone home to Heaven to be with the love of his life,"Mama Collins". I was sad for a moment ,then I just smiled & said to myself, Farewell my Friend, may you "RIP", & enjoy that cup of coffee with Mama. i just want to Thank each & everyone of you for letting me share in a small part of "PAPA's & your lives during his stay at Lila, it was with a Happy Heart & A Wonderful Feeling !
