*To the Dupree family,
Back in the 60's, I had Mr. Dupree as a study hall teacher in the old Seneca High School auditorium. He was a stern teacher, but yet very kind. He made us laugh. Even when you thought he wasn't looking, he knew and saw anything that went on in that auditorium. We loved him and enjoyed having him for our teacher. Prayers to his family. He was a good man and treated us, his students, with utmost respect. God bless you all.*

So sorry you have lost your precious family member. He leaves a mark in this world and a truly lasting impression on us all.
