“ I only met Hoyt about five years ago when i purchased the Lee Home Place but treasure the time i knew him. He would meet me at the gate when i would arrive each morning to work on the grounds and the buildings. He was a wonderful helper and good companion during those early days. I gratefully listened to his wise advice and the many tales he could tell of growing up on the farm, his experiences and the folks he grew up with. He looked right at home when cutting the grass on the Dixie Chopper riding mower. Thanks Hoyt for all your help and being my friend. My condolences to the family.

Growing up at Bethel Church. Hoyt Lee was always the first to help with whatever needed fixing or cleaning up, even after a long workday. My mom and dad enjoyed his friendship. Our deepest sympathy at his passing.

“ Whether he was picking blue grass at the Old Picket Post Community Club, scolding Angie and I or picking on me to see me blush... I will always remember the smile he got out of me or that mischievous smile he gave! All you have to do is look at all his grandchildren and greats and you will see Hoyt Lee living on each day!! Sue and Angie I know your loss and the struggles still ahead but just look at your descendants and you will see your daddy! Mary 65 yrs if only we all could say that statement!! We will all wrap our hearts around yours for the days ahead! I love you with all my heart!
