“ Jane was a true Southern Lady. Her soft spoken kindnesses were a gift she shared freely. I was blessed to spend many fun times with her beginning in 1964. During a teenage trip to the beach on which she and John along with my parents were the chaperones, it was her laughing when us teens did a middle of the night concert with pots and pans in honor of their wedding anniversary she said thank you. Her trust in me to be John's first baby sitter. Being with Jane made you feel loved. Life had a way of separating us but the memories are treasures. She loved you all very much. Prayers for you all.
