“ Janice and I were young when we met and married. We had what now seems like a lifetime of happy time together, travelling, working near each other professionally, renovating a home together. She always had something that she was creating with her amazingly skilled hands and always made everyone smile with her wry humor - she was such a loving, perceptive, intelligent partner. Her light will shine in the memories of all who knew her.

“ Dear family, I just received news about Jan. up here in NY State. So sorry to hear about her passing. Jan and I worked together for many, many years on oodles of theater projects, both professional and community based. She was the most talented costume designer and sewer that I've ever had the pleasure to know. But even more important, she had the biggest heart, a wonderful quick mind, and a fabulous sense of humor. Her kindness and willingness to do anything for her friends and family went beyond measure. She touched so many people with her abundance of talent and love. She is missed.

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolences. The days ahead will be difficult without Janice. May family and friends support you in whatever you need. God is loving and he has promised that he will reunite you together again in the future Paradise when there will be no more sickness or even death. (Revelation 21:4, 5) God is very aware of your many tears. You're in our prayers. (Acts 24:15)

“ Janice (and Mali), Thank you for all the kindness you afforded me and Randy (when he was alive). You were always known to help those less fortunate than you, and that will always be remembered. You will be sadly missed. Joe Pfei.
