“ Elaine and Family,
Jane and I were so sorrow to receive the phone call from Doug of your Mother passing. We know however she is well and walking streets of gold. She would say to us "If You Could See Me Now I'm Standing Tall And Whole". We know what it is to lose a Mother and no one is ever prepared for it no matter how old they are. But, we can rejoice to know that she is in Heaven and has been face to face with Jesus. She has be reunited with all her love ones that have gone before and we know that if we have Jesus living in our hearts when our time on this earth is up we can see her again. There is an old song that says it so well "Oh What A Day That Will Be When My Jesus I Shall See". We will have each of you in our prayers. May God give each of you His peace that passes all understanding now and forever. We are so sorry we will not be able to be with you during this time. We will see you soon. We know that you have GREAT memories of days gone by that will help you in the following days. We LOVE you and have you in our prayers.

Ms. Toy is surely receiving her much deserved reward for the christian life she lived while here on earth ...I will always have the sweet memories of her and Mr. Paul at bible school when I was growing up and her sweet smile she always had for everyone she met...You couldn't ask for 2 sweeter people than these 2 were...they will be missed so much.
