“ *When we lose someone we love
The loss seems too great to bear
God sends us friends to comfort us
To show that He deeply cares*

*But in the dark hours of the night
When there's nobody else around
When we feel the saddest and loneliest
It's there God's love can be found*

*It's like a soothing, healing balm
To soothe our broken hearts
The healing oil poured over us
That flows into every part*

*We can rest secure in God's love
And know He's by our side
He holds us when we feel as though
A part of us has died*

*We can know that God will listen
When we just want to talk
And when we feel we need to cry
We can share it with the Lord*

*For He is always waiting there
Ready with arms open wide
As we pour out the hurt within
He pours His love inside*

*Our Father above loves us so much
And will never leave us alone
He will not forsake us in our need
To face this on our own*

He comforts us and strengthens us

*And rubs us with His balm
And as the dawn breaks through the night
We'll awake in His loving arms.*

“ Jason was one of the most kind-hearted and most gentle friends. He was a free spirit & everyone who knew him or met him called him "friend". It is heartbreaking to know he's not here physically..but in heart, spirit, mind and through fond memories, he will be with us forever. I hope the outreach of people & the heart-felt words given by those who knew him or met him can help you through this grief. He was loved by everyone..and we know Big Dog is tuning that guitar in heaven til we all meet again! My deepest sympathy & prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Emily Peak Sills##imported-end##

“ Jason was a wonderful person! He was a good friend of my sister. He was always so sweet to me. He never treated me like the "little sister". He treated me like a friend. He treated EVERYONE like a friend. He was AWESOME! God has a plan for him. He is surely looking down from Heaven smiling at us. I am so sorry for your loss. Take comfort knowing that he is with Jesus now.##imported-begin##Michelle (Herron) Sturgill##imported-end##

“ Jason Land has been my friend since I was 5 years old. I still hold him in the highest esteem as a man of music, compassion and mostly of God. Jason always impressed me with his music here on Earth and I can hardly fathom the richness of the Songs he sings in Heaven today. I don't think I ever met a man so shamelessly gentle and kind. Thanks Jason, we are forever better for having known you. There's so many memories from camping in my front yard as 3rd graders(still got the picture Big Dog) to camping out in honky tonks listening to that smooth bass and talented voice that would move your heart. Keep singing Jason, make the Angels cry! Love ya-Daniel & Amy##imported-begin##Daniel and Amy Finkenstadt and Family##imported-end##

“ Please accept my most sincere sympathy for your loss. Jason was in my junior English class. I remember him as a fun-loving and most pleasant young man. Back in those days, he played in a band with Brandon Thompson. I remember the days at school that the band played at lunch for various activities. I cannot imagine the pain in your hearts right now. I will keep you in my prayers and thoughts.##imported-begin##Nancy Harper (Addis)##imported-end##

“ To the Land family: My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I cannot believe that Jason is gone. Take comfort in knowing that he loved his family and loved life. He was special to everyone that knew him. He never met a stranger and always had time to put a smile on your face. May God keep each of you close during this time. I love you as big as the sky BIG DOG! FOREVER!##imported-begin##Jennifer Nelson##imported-end##

“ I've had the honor and privilege to have been JASONS bandmate, roommate and friend for several years now. GOD gave me a true gift the day i met him. We had so many great times laughing, playing music, and talking about life in general. Music will never sound the same to me from now on. But it just got a little sweeter in heaven.

Jason always treated my wife karen the same way and thought of him as a truly sweet and loving friend.

You should all know that he put nothing ahead of his family and i've never seen such love and devotion from an uncle as i did with Jason and his niece and nephews.

“ It's so hard to believe that "Big Dog" has already gone on to that wonderful place above. I never can remember a single time when Jason was smiling or having fun. From our fun times at school to our mud trips at Earl's Ford to just having fun.....Jason you surely will be missed. But I know I will see you again one day. To Jason's Family: Take comfort in knowing God is holding Jason's hand and he is in such a glorious place now. Lean on God for strength and each other. All of my thoughts and prayers are with Jason's family, friends and loved ones.

“ Dear Marie & Family I can not even imagine how hard this is for you all. The only thing I can say and know for sure is that God has a purpose for everything He does. And we may not understand or know why He has chosen Jason to be at home with Him, but you can rest in the assurance that you all will see him again one day. We are very sorry for your lose and we will continue to pray for you all.
