“ Louise and Jennifer...Mr.Stewart was one of the most precious men we have ever cared for.He could always make you smile no matter what the night was like. I so miss his "skunk" stories and oh how he would laugh as he was telling them.He was such a special man and how our hearts will forever be warmed with thoughts of him. Thank you very much for sharing him with us and letting him be a part of our lives if only for a short time. We loved him from the bottom of our hearts.##imported-begin##tammy and joni##imported-end##

“ Louise,
I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your Dad. I know God is holding him safely in the palm of his hand...but I have a poem that someone sent me when Fitz passed..I wanted to share with you..

Though his smile is gone forever and his hand I cannot touch, I still have so many memories of the one I loved so much. His memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part, God has him in His keeping, I have him in my heart.

Love you,

“ Louise, Richard and family,
I echo Gigi's words of kindness. Your dad was a sweet, kind man that didn't want to trouble anyone for something that could make him more comfortable. He loved to show the photos of his loved ones he had in his room, especially of his wife and parents. His eyes would just beam when told how pretty his wife was. He also enjoyed taking of the folk that he knew in the Salem area and the work that he had retired from.

I will truley miss visiting with him when our church has their monthly service there, for J.C. attended when his health permitted.

He was certainly a blessing to me.

“ What a wonderful man and sweet spirt Mr. JC was and ALWAYS will be to me. I met him at Foothills and fell in love with his caring demeanor. I loved seeing his wild life pictures, and was amazed in how he captured the bears in action. We always talked about going fishing. He always teared up at the metion of his family. He was ALWAYS a bright spot in my day! Always in a positive spirit, willing to do whatever anyone needed of him. What a blessing of a man! He will be sorely missed.
