“ I was Mrs. Jeanette's manager when she lived at Sloan Street in Seneca. I loved Mrs. Jeanette. She had a kind heart and really cared about others. She loved her family so much and often talked of them in a bragging, honorable way. I enjoyed her company. I enjoyed talking to her. She left me with a good impression. To her family, I am so sorry for your loss. She made me laugh many times when I needed a good laugh for the day. God bless each of you. All your memories of Mrs. Jeanette will be cherished.
