“ May these words of sympathy ease the sorrow that you bear, and may it bring you comfort just to know that others care.

I had a chance to work with Jeff on a project he managed at Clemson. Although I only had a chance to meet Jeff twice, I appreciated his kindness and intelligence. My prayers and thoughts are with his family and friends.

“ Rev 21:3 3)An I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and their God. 4)He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.

We serve a God of vision; as he accomplishes his sovereign purpose in human affairs, he is moving history toward a glorious consummation. When I read the last 2 Chapter in the Bible, our present comprehension. Indeed, "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him(1Corinthinas 2:9). I was truly blessed and inspired by Jeff's love for the Lord even through his pain he showed me how one should continue to give God the praise.##imported-begin##Teresa Blanding##imported-end##

“ Angel, Jesse, Austin and Cameron,

In Jeff there was tenderness, kindness and compassion. He told me on numerous occasions how blessed he was. Our LORD chose Jeff for this "bend in the road" and Jeff ran his race with vigor and fought a victorious fight. He won the crown set before him by our LORD.

It is our heartfelt prayer that the LORD sustain you and your precious Sons in this bend in the road and that you shine as examples of our LORD's love. May HIS peace shower down upon you and give you great comfort in your time of need.

“ Dear Jeff's family:

We are all so saddened by the loss of Jeff. All of you are still on our prayer list at Broad Street UMC, of course. We met together yesterday afternoon and hopefully, lifted all of you up in our prayers. I know that the loss of Jeff is unspeakable, but we know that it is God who sustains us and through His strength alone, can we cope at times like this.

I am so sorry and I wish there was something I could do to ease the hurt. May memories of happiness you shared be helpful and comfort you now.

Please know that you are all in my heart especially during these hard days ahead. We know that things will be different, but not impossible. I send my love and very deepest sympathy.

For Jeff is now ready to be offered and the time of his departure is at hand.

He has fought a good fight, he has finished his course, he kept his faith;

Henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give him at that day; and not to him only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
