“ One of those times, that trusting JESUS’ plan is all anyone can do. Self-less, is a great word to describe Todd. He loved and laughed BIG and often! Never have I known of anyone say to speak of him negatively. You could not talk to him more than 30 seconds without him mentioning Chase and Cole. He was oh so proud of them, and rightfully so!

Mamaw, “That sweet, loving Todd” was a great example to many.

“Now,now,let’s all love one another and try to get along!”

May GOD be with you all, as the family and friends, learn to live without Todd, and get ready to see him again, one day!

“ There are not enough words to describe this man. He is loved by so many people. Always laughing and making others laugh. He was a great story teller. It was his gift. He was a true friend. But his greatest gift came in the form of his devotion to his family especially to his sons, Chase and Cole. He loved those boys with all that was in him. He was the best Daddy. He passed that gift onto them and for those of us that had the privilege to witness it was an awesome sight to see. Chase and Cole were his primary care givers and their devotion to him was unlike anything I had ever witnessed. It was a perfect picture of pure love - you felt it the minute you walked into the room. It was an humbling experience. What an example of the love of Christ! He loves us unconditionally. What a legacy Sweet Todd has left for us all to pattern our lives by. He will be missed. Our hearts are broken but he will live forever in our sweet memories.
