“ Dear family of Jerry, please know that I will be praying for you as you go through this sad time in the loss of your husband and Dad. I met Jerry about three years ago as he was just finding out about the illness he has had. I believe I can honestly say he was one of the best men I have known throughout my life, always happy, easy going with a smile and a good man spiritually. The last thing Jerry said to me and I will never forget was "Reg pray for me and I love you" with a handshake and a smile, and I returned the same to him in all sincerity!! What a good friend Jerry was to me. Jerry rest in peace with you heavenly father, you have fought the good fight and finished the race as we know it here on earth and now you will receive the Crown that God promised each of us as believers. God bless each of you! Reg Head

“ My thoughts and prayers are full for the family of Mr Walker . He was a good friend of my father (Gene Smith) and helped me moved and even brought over mulch with his son to my home and spread it. I will never forget of his mercy and kindness. I do know this, my dad greeting him through heavens door. May God surround the family with strength and compassion , in Jesus’s name.
