“ Thoughts and Prayers to you all. Know I have fond memories of the Convience Store talks and advice. Education about old coins. Though Heaven is where he longed to be to be near his wife. He lives forever through his Daughters, Grand Daughters and Great Grand Daughter as though they are my friends he lives through them in many ways. I love to hear him laugh and his Georiga draw just make this Jersey Girl Smile. You will be miss Mr. Jess but never forgotten. You made your mark in our little town. Until we meet again. “ I wanted to take this moment to express my deepest condolences to the entire family. Mr. J was quite a guy. I will remember the times I was able to spend with him fondly. I always found it surprising the a man of his age had the sense of humor of a schoolboy. And although we now have to miss his laughter and kindness on this earth. He is now reunited with his first love Mrs. J. It isn't hard to imagine them now sitting in a couple of rocking chairs on the front porch of heaven shooting the breeze and laughing it up hysterically telling stories and reminiscing yet again.
