“ Our condolences to Jewell's family. He was surely a wonderful man to know and to have in all of our lives. His grand daughter and great grand children were truly blessed to have had him be a part of their lives. His wife Mallie and sons Michael and Herschel were very lucky indeed, to call him husband and call him father. May Jewell now find peace in Heaven, along with his predeceased family members and friends. Perhaps a peace that he was unable to find here on Earth. May his surviving family and friends also find peace, amongst themselves and amidst their own personal lives. The Harper's are a strong and willful bunch, may the Lord bless them all, and protect their hearts from pain and anymosity towards each other, but find love, peace, compassion, forgiveness, and tolerance for themselves, and most of all each other.##imported-begin##a family friend##imported-end##
