“ Sister Jill's depths of Love are etched in my heart for ever. She helped me to grow up in our youthful years of being adults. She was able and did ask questions so she could deeply understand.

We laughed, we cried, we shared and learned, and grew a sweet friendship. No one else can take her place! Our lives will never be exactly the same without her!

Thankful to the Lord for His mysterious ways, His wonders to perform,
Sister Mary

Ray and Family, I am sending my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Jill was an incredibly gifted lady who made everyone in her presence feel welcomed and warm with her grace and charm. Her gift of song was a genuine talent and I always enjoyed seeing Ray's face light up when she sang. Spending all these years together as a family has given you all a treasure chest of wonderful memories. May God hold you closely as these trying days ahead let us know how much Jill will be missed. Grace and Peace from my heart to yours. Joey Lee
