“ I remember Joan Bozinovich as Mrs Labinger who lived a couple of houses down from me when I was a kid growing up in Chicago. She was always very nice to me! I remember her driving her son Joey and myself around the streets of Chicago in her Oldsmobile convertible and also driving us to some stables where her daughter Linda would ride horses. After playing outside on a hot summer day, she would always have sandwiches and cold drinks for us kids! She will always be in my memories! My condolences to all of her family! My regards, Brian LeFevour, Arlington VA.
