“ Phillip, Kayla and Penny - We were so sorry to hear about Joni. There are a lot of miles between us and we haven't seen each other that much over the years but we have always considered ya'll to be some of our best and oldest friends. I know this is hard and I wish I had words to ease your pain but all I can do is say that we are hurting with you and look forward to being together again. Stay strong and trust in God.

“ Phillip and Kayla - Joni fought the good fight, finished her course, and now is at the feet of our Lord worshiping. With no more pain or wheelchairs, she is standing tall ~ I envy her. I know your hearts are sad without her, but if we could only see her now ~ and one day soon we will. My prayers are with you all.

“ Ms. Joni and Philip were very dear to me. The Addis family were among the first people to make me feel welcome when I first came to Open Door church. As someone who came in literally off the street, I really didn't know what to expect when I set foot in the door. But the people were so warm, and Philip (who was one of the deacons there) and his wife, Joni, were among those who welcomed me in. And they were ALWAYS gracious to me from that moment on. She will be missed. My prayers and condolences go out to Philip and Kayla and the rest of the family.
