

Mrs. Joanna Lambert

September 28, 1945 - March 21, 2017

Joanna Lambert, 71, of Seneca, S.C, and formerly of West Palm Beach, died March 21, 2017, at Oconee Memorial Hospital in Seneca, her husband and best friend, John Abreu, by her side.

Jo also leaves behind a daughter Mary Abreu-Cristy and son-in-law Matt Cristy of Tucker, Ga.; step-son Joe Abreu of Huntsville, Ala.; grandsons Joshua Brown of Tucker, Ga., Garrett Brown of New Braunfels, Texas, and Conner Abreu of Huntsville, Ala.; granddaughters Liesl Cristy of Tucker, Ga., and Sidney Abreu of Huntsville, Ala.; brother Barry Edelstein and sister-in-law Linda Edelstein of San Antonio, Texas; nieces Shawn Edelstein of Los Angeles, Calif., and Anita Guerra of San Antonio, Texas; several cousins; and many dear friends.

Jo loved, fully and completely, choosing to always look for the best in every person she met. She was an artist and used her talents in everything from photography to sculpture to painting to pottery. Her homes reflected her artistic style but nevertheless were warm and welcoming, just like Jo.

She spent the last 30 years with her best friend and soulmate, John, in Delaware, Maryland, Florida and South Carolina. They were well matched, with Jo's liberal artsy-fartsyness complementing John's by-the-book military background. They traveled often, sometimes to visit family; other times to more exotic locales like Singapore, Australia, and Walt Disney World. After much discussion and several years of health issues, Jo and John bought their dream home on Lake Keowee in South Carolina on March 13, relocating from West Palm Beach.

In accordance with her wishes, Jo will be cremated.

A celebration of life service will be held at 11:00 AM, Sunday, May 21, 2017, at Davenport Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Joanna Lambert

January 28, 2023 at 01:03 PM