“ For a long time in my life this man was my absolute best friend and as I grew older I'm guilty of drifting away from him. One thing for sure is I will never forget for as long as I live my memories of him. This guy pulled more jokes on me than anyone, most I can't print here. In our softball days our team just wasn't the same if he was not there. I love you, Doug, and I will see you again in Heaven. May God bless your remaining family. Tony and Frances Taylor

“ Prayers extended to the entire family. So many great memories of Doug, especially playing softball during the late 70's thru early 80's. How intense the game might be, he had the ability to ease the tension with his great sense of humor and wit! Much respect for this man!

“ It's sad that as we grow older we tend to lose touch with good friends. I am very guilty of that, but the memories I have of Doug always bring a smile to my face. He was always the same. I was looking at my old yearbook from high school and he had written two pages of just one funny thing after another. I know that all of you will miss him and our prayers are for all of you. Just remember there is One who can comfort you when no one else can. Kenneth and Gayle Duncan
