“ So sorry to hear of John's passing. I really enjoyed his friendship and camaraderie as we coached 13-14 year old boys in the Seneca Rec Leagues 15 years or so ago. John, myself and Eddie Martin coached the All-Star teams in Seneca in 1998 and 1999, and we coached against each other during both those seasons. I also enjoyed having both his sons, Joey and Zach (Dammit!) playing for me during these years.

John was a good man with a lot of baseball knowledge and love for the game, and I will always remember him and you all, his family. God bless you --- he's gone much too soon.

“ Thinking of all of you today. Prayers lifted up. I have very fond memories of coaching against John with the Seneca Recreation program, and wonderful USC vs Clemson arguments. I know also he cared very much about his family.
