“ Almost 8 months ago I lost my role model of who I would accept as a partner for life. My daddy set the bar high. I am fortunate that my dad got to meet my husband and love him as a member of the family. I miss him so much yet thankful for my husband who had been by my side during these difficult days. Daddy, I love you, miss you and look forward to meeting in heaven one day 🥺🥺🥺

“ John was a solid man whom I met on a project about 15 years ago. He had a calming demeanor and was always supportive if you had a problem. He will be missed.

“ I have very fond memories of working with John over the previous 20 years. He always had time for a chat, and to share stories and experiences. He loved his family and talked often of them. He was extensively knowledgeable in Project Controls and graciously shared his knowledge along the way. I will miss him!

“ In my life, I have been fortunate to meet a lot of men that I have looked up to and John Payne is one of them. I have never met a man that had more knowledge about life than John. Every time I would sit down and talk with John, we would wind up talking about his family or things that mattered to him. He often shared about his boys playing sports and their accomplishments in life. He shared about his love for his daughter and her family also. I will NEVER forget when he walked out of the house one day as Libby and I were making flower beds behind their home and made this statement :“ I have never seen anyone use a level to level landscape timbers for a flower bed”. He said to me, Frank, that is being way too precise. Rest in peace John, my friend. You Sir were one of the most intelligent men I have ever known. You will be missed by a lot of people and I am one of them.
