“ Remember so many years of Uncle John and his family visiting my parents home on their yearly trek from Florida to Maine each summer. Was special for my brother and I as we got to spend time with our cousins from far away. Also meant our school year was almost over. Got the chance to spend one summer with Uncle John at Newagen Inn with my cousin Johnny. Selden Crocker. Kennebunk Maine

“ Growing up in Bangor and Augusta, Maine our family always looked forward to a visit from our Snitko relatives and their spouses. It always meant that there would be some Polish food, stories and laughter. I can remember clearly those visits and the people who made them so much fun for my sister and I. Uncle John was part of that group of admired relatives. We loved them all.
