“ I just learned yesterday that my longtime friend, Joe Barr had passed away back in January. Joe was the greatest friend I ever had, and I will miss him very much. He was an excellent Drummer, and when he lived in Jamestown, NY, I would jam with him on guitar. Joe was the nicest guy, kind, and a great friend. He was a talented Drummer, who loved Kiss music & Fast Muscle Cars. Joe & I hung out together all the time back when he lived in NY. We always visited friends, cruised around in my car, and played music at his house well into the night on Drums & guitar. I will always remember the good times we had in the good ole' days. Joe, you WILL be missed my friend, and I regret we lost touch over the years. I always thought about you & wondered where you had moved away to. It was a tremendous blow to me to learn of your passing at such a young age. You will always be in my thoughts and Prayers my friend, and I will always miss your friendship. Thank you for being such an awesome friend to me & for all the great memories we had. R.I.P my friend, you will NEVER be forgotten.

“ Coming home from being away 1 month to your last text "I miss talking" is exactly what I was looking forward to; the 'miss' is mutual. Your messages, your voice, your laugh, your jokes; in spirit we'll talk anytime; anywhere, brother I love you.

“ We were more then brother and sister. We were best friend's for a long time growing up. We stood by each other, protected each other, got in trouble together, rodes bikes and built forts together.

“ Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there.
I do not sleep.*

*I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the autumn rain.*

*When you awake in the morning hush.
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of birds circling in flight.
I am the stars that shine at night.*

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there.
I do not sleep.*

Dear Lisa, I am so sorry for your family's loss. I still remember going to the Concord Fair (poor Mark, he had two wild ones from your family and then add me on), we grazed through the fair...ate everything fried and covered in chocolate....I just remember a lot of cutting up, laughter and fun.
