“ JoAnn and family. Bill and I are saddened to learn of Ed's sudden passing. We just heard today and are thinking of you and remembering you in prayer. Pastor Ed was a great man and the reunion he must have shared with Jesus cannot be described in it's full Glory. We know he is in a better place and that your hearts will ache for him and his place in your home, but he will always be in your heart and take great comfort in knowing that he is reunited with Jesus himself! Praise the Lord! Grateful that his passing was quick and that he didn't have to suffer. If there is anything we can do, please let us know. Sending love and hugs.

I know he was more fondly knew around Keowee as Preacher Ed but I knew him as Mr. Bryson first, Phyllis's daddy. He always spoke to us with a smile on his face, a twinkle in his eye, a cute question for us, and a hug for Phyllis when I became Phyllis's friend in our 9th grade year. He was a wonderful and loving person as he taught his children. His loving, giving, and kind traits he left in the heart's of his children to be a part of his legacy for the Lord that Mr. Bryson left on this earth for me. My heart hurts with you, Phyllis, and the rest of your family and friends. I know he will be missed so dearly but a twinkle will be in you all's eyes as his knowing he is asking our Lord a cute question and probable hug. I love you girl.

“ Just found this out today Sunday afternoon from Kenneth. We are so sorry to learn of Ed's passing even though we know he has fought the good fight for years. It has been a pleasure having him and his children join "the Robins Family" and become one of our uncles. I think of the time when he had to go on a diet and at the Robins Christmas Party the only dessert he could eat was a meringue made from egg whites. Not sure he should have eaten those, but he sure enjoyed them. He was always a favorite of my dad's especially when he visited dad in the hospital. In my dad's words he said Ed comes in and says "How are you doing today?" After Dad's reply Ed would ask him if there were any things he could do for him and then he would pray, shake hands, and be on his way. That's the way dad liked visitors' visits: short, sweet, kind, to the point and then leave!!
We will sure miss him.
Our love,
Louise L & Clarence Towe
