“ Dear Kay family,

I am so sorry for your loss and my thoughts and prayers are with each and every one of you. I am so glad I got to meet Maddie's wonderful family, just sorry that it happened the way it did. I could tell how loved Mr. Kay was by the 100's of people who came to pay their respects. Mrs. Kay I don't know if Jeremy has ever told you but his mother's name is Beverly. And Maddie's Daddy's birthday is the same as Jeremy's Papa (July 28th) who raised him. Today happens to be my Mother's birthday. I told Jeremy yesterday I think these are all signs from Heaven letting us know they are still with us and are happy with what they see. The Kay family has all loved Jeremy since they met him and it gives me great peace knowing when the Lord calls me home he has you all. Again, I know the days ahead will be hard and my prayers will continue.

“ We love you guys. That has always been the case and it won't ever change, no matter how much time passes. Joe was a good man; special in so many ways. After all it's not everyday you give one of your children the name "Kay" Please know that we will be keeping you in our heartfelt thoughts and prayers, not just during this difficult time, but always, just as Joe will be in our hearts until we see him again. This is not a "goodbye" but a "we'll see you later." To this awesome family, we are here for anything you need.
