“ Dear Keith and Donna,
Rob and I have such heavy hearts today as we think of you both and your family. We had grown very fond of Josh and were so impressed with what a hard worker he was and what a sweet soul. Everywhere I look around our yard, I see his hand at work. His friendship for Rob was so appreciated...he gave Rob one of the best days he's had since we moved here. When you are both able and ready, we'd like to see you again as we'd planned...we have good shoulders to lean on...this is not new to us. We will see you before the week is out. “ Keith, I am so sorry to hear the news. It just broke my heart when daddy told me. I know we're not "close" cousins, but you are my cousin and I feel your pain.
I don't have your home address so I thought I'd send you a note this way. I sure hope you get it.
You all are definetly in our prayers. If there's anything else we can do other than pray, please, let us know.
Death is never an easy thing...even when we know it's coming and when we know the sick one will be better off...but for things to happen this way...I am truly truly sorry. I don't know the situation, but I know it must be very difficult for you. I really don't know what else to say except, rely on God. He is our only comforter. He'll help you through this tough time.
I must go now. You have our love and prayers.
