“ Brad and Therese, Allison and boys, Justin and Chelsey and Families; I am heartsick to read of Joshua's passing. I watched he and his brother grow up, and this just seems surreal. Please know that I am praying that God will wrap His Arms of Comfort and Love, a Peace that passes all understanding over you all. Such a beautiful life gone too soon for us here on earth.

“ Brad and Therese, my heart goes out to you, and to Joshua's family knowing that your hearts must be broken with the passing of Joshua. But you know that Joshua being a child of the King is rejoicing in God's presence. We don't know why he was taken so early in life and, if you question, it is okay because God understands our anguish as parents. I am sure he expects it and holds nothing against you. May the peace that only our Lord can give sustain you in this trying time.

“ I never new Major Molgaard but he sounds like the type officer I would be proud to serve under. The military needs officers like him who believes in God and Country and are true Christian leaders. He will be missed by friends his country and his loving family. God has a plan for us all but sometimes it's hard to understand. With all my sympathy from a fellow Soldier.
