

Mrs. Joy Chamberlain

April 24, 1936 - September 6, 2019

Lillian Joyce “Joy” Chamberlain, 83, wife of Donald Sherwood Chamberlain, of 2 Coxswain Place, Salem, passed away Friday, September 6, 2019, at Prisma Health Cottingham Hospice House.

A native of Chicago, IL, Mrs. Chamberlain was the daughter of the late William and Clara Clemenson Knudsen. She graduated from Evanston Hospital in Evanston, IL as a registered nurse. During her tenure, she worked as a surgical nurse, physician assistant and was also involved in nursing education. Mrs. Chamberlain volunteered with the United Way and also worked in corporate art leasing.

Joy and Don retired to Keowee Key in 1988, where they became very involved in the community. Don and Joy were members of Cross Creek Plantation and Keowee Key Country Club. She enjoyed golfing, but her passion was gardening. They both enjoyed traveling, and have visited over 100 countries with their goal of learning more about ancient civilizations and people of other cultures.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Chamberlain is survived by a son: Daniel Chamberlain (Camilla) of Fishers, IN; a daughter: Cheryl Chamberlain of Chicago, IL; four grandchildren: Nicholas, Christopher, Cole and Olivia Chamberlain; and great-grandchild: Camden Chamberlain.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 11:00 AM on Wednesday, September 11, 2019 at the Keowee Key Clubhouse.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Camden Military Academy, 520 US-1, Camden, SC 29020; the Keowee Fire Department, 115 Maintenance Rd, Salem, SC 29676; or to a charity of one's choice.
