“ I'll never forget my Aunt Joyce my fondest memory is when we were picking cucumbers and tomatoes out of her garden with a salt shaker in one hand and a vegetable in the other she would chow down. I think that day we ate more then we picked I'll always remember her laughter the tears and the stories she would tell. Aunt Joyce as you have taken your Heavenly Journey home breathe that Heavenly air until it's my time to join you till that time watch over us all and wait for us to come home. I'll always miss you.
