“ The Williams family have been my neighbor for over 30 years & I just want to commend Judy's children on how well they have taken care of her during her illness. I have watched them sit on her porch & stay late hours & then some since day one in early May. They have given & showed her every ounce of love in their being. I know she was so comforted by having her children by her side as she loved them so very much. I stand amazed at how well they stepped in & held her close 24/7. I will always have such admiration for all of you. Judy will be missed by many & I, too, will miss my partner in crime. She & I always looked after each other & I will miss her being just across the street. God be with you all & know I am here for you. Hold your head high & may there be peace in your hearts. You gave your all.

Rest in peace my friend.

*Love in Christ,

“ Prayers for you daughters, son, grandchildren, brothers and family. Your sweet Judy was a treasure. Everyone who spent any time with her felt like she belonged to them too. That is how she made us feel. Special and loved. Words can not describe the void in life without Judy, but bringing to mind her smile, her special laugh, her hugs and every memory of the way she always put others first are the legacy she leaves and the example we all should strive to follow. Her ministry everyday was service to others and service above self. She loved her family and her friends unconditionally. Heaven has gained a special angel!

“ Judy was a gracious lady. Always willing to listen to your problems, and her usual answer was “ Well it will be alright” . She was a wonderful hairdresser, always took extra time to make sure it was just right, always keeping her charge as low as possible because she knew a lot of her “ Little ladies “ as she called them were on a fixed income. She took her responsibility’s in life seriously and took care of them. There will never be another Judy. She was my friend, my hairdresser for 50 years, my sister-in-law (more like a sister). I will love an miss her the rest of my life. A wonderful, sweet, person has left us much to soon.
