“ She was a great nanny. Even if she wasn't my grandmother. I thought of her as one. She was loved by many and, its going to be hard going through the days without seeing her. Her laughs was beautiful. She was a good woman. She went out of her way to make people happy. Even though she was in pain she still had a smile on her face. I love you nanny Judy. Rest In Peace.

“ Mama you are the most beautiful, strongest woman I will ever know. You always loved everyone, unconditionally. You gave all you had to anyone in need. No one will ever come close to the person you were. Thank you for the love you showed not only me, but everyone. This world so desperately needs more people just like you. I am missing you horribly, but you and daddy had an appointment that you could not miss.

“ Judy was a great lady and often spoke of God to others. She couldn't wait to go home to be with her beloved son Leroy and wonderful son Jerry. Now she's home with them, safe in Jesus' arms, with no more pain.
