“ Such a sweet and funny lady! She never failed to ask about all of my Rochester family everytime I saw her. My brother David worked for your parents years ago at the first Lucky Strike when you and Jodi were just little bits. Miss Judy will be missed by many people. Lots of prayers for your family.

“ I ADORED JUDY! WHEN I WAS 14 YRS OLD, JUDY GAVE ME MY FIRST JOB, WAITRESSING AT HER LUCKY STRIKE RESTAURANT, OVER IN OCONEE SQUARE SHOPPING CENTER. SHE TAUGHT ME SO MUCH, ESPECIALLY HOW TO SMILE AND TREAT CUSTOMERS. SHE CONTINUED TO BE A LIFE LONG FRIEND, AND WAS AN AMAZING FRIEND TO MY LATE FATHER. SHE WILL BE MISSED. MY CONDOLENCES TO THE FAMILY.

“ My world is sad today because my beautiful "sister-cousin" is gone after a long and courageous battle. She was a warrior--strong-willed and ready to meet all of Life's challenges.

Though I am a few years younger, I always looked up to Judi. She taught me to play a "mean" piano boggie and other songs--some that I still play today. I remember how she would almost go into a trance and bang out those tunes! Although I had very little singing talent, Judi convinced me that I was great, and she took me to a Greenville radio station in 1956 to try out for the local talent show. Needless to say, I did not make it, but Judi convinced me it was their loss! (And, I believed her!) Judi was my life long cheerleader. No matter what I tried to do, she would always say, "You can do that!" She helped instill in me a confidence that keeps me going today.

I always admired the closeness of my Greenville Welch cousins. They lived in a tiny little house in a mill village, but there was always room for a younger cousin to come for summer visits. I especially enjoyed seeing the care they provided for their aging parents. Because I only had brothers, I loved seeing the attentive interaction between the siblings--especially the sisters. I shared this feeling with them several years ago, and to my delight, they decided to adopt me--so I became their sister-cousin.

As first cousins, living in different parts of South Carolina, our lives took separate paths as we grew up, but everytime we had a chance to meet up at family gatherings, it was as if no time had passed. She loved to laugh, and her laughter was infectious.

In addition to her loving family, Judi was blessed with many, many friends. Her "Lucky Strike" Family influenced many decisions that she and Steve made over the years, and they helped her through many dark days. Judi will be sorely missed by so many of us. Judi faced many hardships during her life--health problems, financial issues, and the devastating loss of her son, Gavin. But, she continued to rise again and again, and to be an inspiration to all of her friends and family. This Loving attitude extends into today, as the siblings rally now to face these difficult days ahead, but they know that Judi Lives forever in the precious memories we all share
