“ You do not know me, but I was at Six Mile Recreation the night of this horrible tragedy. My heart has been broken for your family and for Justin. I don't know of anything that has affected me this deeply in my life. I have wept for a child that I didn't know. I pray that God's grace and mercy will help see you through the unimaginable pain you are having to bear at this time.##imported-begin##Cynthia Hunt##imported-end##

“ I regret that I didn't know Justin personally but I want you to know your family has been in my prayers this week. Justin seemed to be the teenager every parent would be so proud of. There was one continuous message about Justin in all the posts I've read: kind, funny, good to others...the list goes on and on. What an example he still is - that will never be forgotten. Today will be hard but God will get everyone through!##imported-begin##Kelli Blankenship##imported-end##

“ To the family that has lost the sweetest boy, my hearts go out to you during this time of grief. Justin was a very close and good friend of mine, since we were very small at Six Mile, he played that guitar like no other. Now he's up in Heaven with Jesus picking a never ending tune on his guitar. Justin was such a caring kind of guy, it wouldn't matter who you was if he could help you in any way he would, he was a friend to all. The short time Justin was here on this earth I am beyond thankful I got to be part of his life for so many years, I'm beyond thankful for the memories him and I share. He is now in a much better place being a guardian angel. We love and miss you Justin, keep watching over us. God bless the family!###imported-begin###Somere Moore###imported-end###
