

Mrs. Katherine "Kate" Walton McFadden

July 9, 2014 - October 27, 2014

Katherine Walton McFadden passed away Monday, October 27th, 2014. She was born July 9th, 1973 in Atlanta, GA to Louisa Walton McFadden and Isaac Joseph McFadden II. She graduated from Lakeside High School and earned a Bachelor of Science degree from The University of California Santa Cruz. Kate earned her Masters of Science from Texas A&M University and her Doctorate of Ecology and Environmental Biology from Columbia University where she was the recipient of a Fulbright Scholarship. She was currently an Assistant Professor in Environmental Sciences at Clemson University and Assistant Unit Leader with the USGS SC Cooperative Fish & Wildlife Research Unit.

Kate's distinguished career spanned six continents where she conducted ecological field research contributing to the conservation of endangered species and ecosystems. Kate's passion and commitment to teaching went well beyond the classrooms she led. Whether it was her dedication to mentoring field researchers in Rwanda or tutoring students at Columbia University and Clemson University, Kate served as a role model to the next generation of environmental scientists.

Kate was a loving wife, an adoring aunt, a caring friend, and contributed selflessly to neighbors, friends, and even a few strays. It was her lovingly generous personality that infected so many, so far.

Kate made a tremendous impact on the lives of those she touched, but her contribution to science, terrific teaching and undeniable compassion will be felt by those who never met her.

Kate is survived by her husband Okan Demirmen, mother, Louisa Walton McFadden, of Atlanta, GA, father, Dr. Isaac Joseph McFadden II of Memphis, TN, step-mother The Rev. Senter H. Crook of Memphis, TN, sister, Elizabeth Tilghman McFadden of Memphis, TN, brother, Isaac Joseph McFadden III of Atlanta, GA, father-in-law Dr. Ferruh Demirmen and mother-in-law Tulin Demirmen of Houston, TX, sister-in-law, Sibel Demirmen, brother-in-law Scott Henry of San Rafael, CA, brother-in-law, Steven Allen Holdsworth of Memphis, TN and two nieces and two nephews.

“ Having just learned of Kate's passing, I'm deeply sorry to Okan and all of Kate's family. I knew her briefly, but I was glad to have spent time with her. Kate was warm and witty, beautiful inside and out. I believe she was the type of person to affect everyone she met in a positive way, and she was always kind to me. The world has lost a bright light.

It would've been lovely to see you again one day. Rest in peace, sweet Kate.

“ All of Kate's former colleagues and professors at Texas A&M University recall her with great fondness. I was fortunate to visit Kate several times at Columbia and present guest lectures in her classes. She was admired by her students and clearly loved interacting with them. She was establishing the same relationship at Clemson. She was a joy to know and we will never forget her.

“ It saddens me to know that Dr. McFadden is no longer with us. In the time that she was at Clemson, I got to know her in and out of the classroom. Dr. McFadden was a great mentor and contributed a lot to the field of wildlife biology and conservation. My life is better for having known Dr. McFadden.

“ I had the brief pleasure of working with Kate catching turtles at Palmyra for a season and also kept in touch over the last five years. As a strong woman and brilliant scientist, she was an amazing role model. This loss is felt far and wide and I wish her friends and family every possible comfort in this horrible time.

“ Kate was the first person to really reach out to me in grad school. She was almost finished (or had just finished) when I started and I always looked up to her. This is a great loss for all the scientists who will never meet her. My deepest condolences to her family.

“ It seems like yesterday when you were starting out in graduate school as a young naïve student. You went on to do so many great things and touched so many lives. Kate - you were lost too soon and the world is poorer for it. My thoughts are with everyone who knew you and through whom you will never be forgotten.
