“ Remembering Ken and his first car - 1930 Model A. He and I riding in her while being towed by a rope to her new home. Ken nervous following George's instructions of how to steer and brake so he wouldn't plow into the family car on the other end of the tow rope. It was the start of many miles that he put on his beloved Ford.

Beginning 1999 a new chapter started for Ken, Kath, Dave and I. We found we were great traveling companions - and for the next 14 years, we enjoyed ourselves. Whether boat or plane, bus or train, we traveled! Italy, Ireland, 2 river cruises, Alaska by boat, train across the mid-west and visits to some of our National Parks; Glacier, Yellowstone and especially Grand Canyon. And after some trips, we'd get a glass "memento by Ken."

Ken was always challenging himself to learn new things - from basket weaving, wood carving, glass work, puzzles or just pouring over interesting subjects in books. And he was funny, with a very dry sense of humor. Proud to have called him brother in law and brother - loved greatly by Dave and Nancy Halliwell
