“ I met Ronnie over 20 years ago at Square D. He was always a great guy and a hard worker. Later in years he joked with me that I should get a real job, so I did I started my own remodeling business and ended up working on his house with Him and His wife Alice. He has beaten the odds of COPD, living 5 time longer than normal. We recently got to spend a day with them as they came to the beach. It is hard to think of him being gone, but now he is in heaven were there is no pain!
