“ Kevin was one of the kindest young men I have known. He had a great sense of humor, too. One of my favorite memories is taking Kevin and my daughters to The Grand Ole Opry at the Ryman Auditorium.

“ We will always remember Kevin for his generosity and selflessness. We first met him at a local restaurant as we were eating lunch next to him and his parents. As we were finishing lunch a surprise Strawberry Shortcake dessert arrived at our table for Briana our Down Syndrome granddaughter. It was sent from Kevin because as his parents explained he wanted to "make her day!" So sweet. Prayers and condolences to the family. Karen and Phillip Coker and Briana (Tonya)
